

- Thursday 12 February 2015 -

Conference « Fighting against corruption in the public sphere »

PROGRAM

8:30 Registration

9:00 Opening remarks – S.E.M. Roland Galharague, Ambassador of France in Hungary

Moderator : Gábor Széplaki-Nagy, General Prosecutor's Office

Part 1 : Legal and economic issues in the fight against corruption in the public sphere: an overview

9:15 – 9:45 Hungary: The borders of corruption in public administration and public services – Miklós Hollán, National University of Public Service

9:45- 10:15 France : The situation in the public sphere (officials, elected representatives and politicians) - Pierre Berthet, magistrate, Central Service of Prevention of Corruption – French Ministry of Justice

10:15 - 10:45 Coffee Break

Part 2 : Fighting corruptions: ways and means

1/ Institutional initiatives

10:45-11:15 Presentation of the Anti-corruption Strategy in the Hungarian Home Ministry – Peter Klotz, Anti corruption expert - National Protective Service

11:15-11:45 Fighting against corruption in France: judicial and law enforcement aspects - Pierre Berthet, magistrate, Central Service of Prevention of Corruption – French Ministry of Justice

11:45-12:15 Fighting against corruption in Hungary: judicial and law enforcement aspects - Attila Kovács, Section Chief at the Department of Special and Military Affairs - Prosecutor General's Office

12:30 - 13:30 Lunch Break

2/ Civil society initiatives

13:30 – 14:00 Transparency and Open Data to fight against corruption– David Gayou, Administrator of the French civil society organization « Regards citoyens »

14:00 – 14:30 Presentation of the Red Flag Project, European dimension of fighting corruption in public procurement and discussion of the Anti-Corruption Program – Sándor Léderer and Anita Koncsik, K-Monitor - Alíz Szloboda, Transparency International Hungary

14:30-15:00 Presentation of Integrity Pact Projects - Alíz Szloboda, Head of Public Sector Programmes - Transparency International Hungary